

VOX COELESTIS

"Beautiful choral music in beautiful spaces, solely for charitable benefit"

THE CATHEDRALS SERIES

Conducted by

Nigel Short

The ex-Kings Singer and Director of the world-renowned 'Tenebrae' conducts Vox Coelestis in this choral concert of music associated with pilgrimage. This is the first concert in a 'pilgrimage' around the Episcopal Cathedrals of Scotland.

Our singers sing in the top cathedral & chamber choirs from across the UK, and give of their time and talents without fee. Since our formation, we have raised over £17,000 for charities.

"Left me gasping in awe and wonder"

"One of the most exceptional and moving musical experiences I've had in over 40 years of concert-going"

www.voxcoelestis.com

This concert is endorsed by the Bishop of St Andrew's, Dunkeld &

Dunblane: "As a Trustee of Mission to Seafarers Scotland, I am delighted to endorse this concert, raising funds which will help to provide vital support to the seafarers who bring goods from across the world to our shores"

The Rt Revd Ian Paton

MUSIC FOR PILGRIMAGE

7.00pm

Saturday 5th September 2020

St Ninian's Cathedral

North Methven Street, Perth PH1 5PP

www.perthcathedral.co.uk

Tickets: £15 (£12 concessions)

Online discount £12 (£10 concessions) from:

www.mtss.scot/tickets

In aid of:

Mission to Seafarers Scotland

